Dear Chuck & Jerry,

Sorry I haven't written in such a long time. I have been very busy here and just couldn't write any letters.

Where is this place you are living in regard to downtown L.A.? Where is Lee & Lola from you? I have been having the same thoughts about the Power of God. I believe we are in the midst of a terrible apostasy and I feel helpless in it myself. I don't believe it's an impossible situation, but I realize my own need for Power. I believe the only thing that will work in Muslim countries is the Power of Almighty God. About the only Christians here are the descendants of the time of Praising Hyde.

I believe, Chuck, that today is your birthday, Nov. 13th & Nov. 20th was Grandpa's. Happy Birthday. Do you realize I will be 30 years old this next month? It seems funny to leave the ~~thirties~~ ^{twenties}. Life is short!

I expect to get the Bookstore open tomorrow. It has been a lot of work & expense, but I believe it will be profitable in interesting people in Christ. These Muslims are funny; in many ways we can agree with them & in many ways we can't. They remind me so much of the Morians who claim to believe the Bible, as the Muslims do, but when you try to pin them down to specific things they don't believe a word of it. Peculiarly enough they believe in all the miracles in the Bible; they even believe that Christ Jesus is coming again, but they don't believe that Jesus was crucified. They believe someone else was crucified for him so he is coming back to die. They don't believe that Jesus Christ is God & they absolutely hate to hear it said. You can see how peculiarly they believe. I was surprised to find they believe as much as they do about Christianity.

For two months I haven't written but four letters and I am way behind.

I want to thank you for the gift of $7.00 dated Oct. 6. I get a list of receipts of all the donations sent in for me. At the same receipt the donor gets from the office. I always try to thank everyone that gives each month.

a gift sent in marked literature only would probably go to India. I started this Bookstore myself as I saw the tremendous need here when I first came. There are many, many students here & literature isn't an answer but it can lead to the correct answer of everyone's problem in Christ. I don't want the Bookstore to be just another contrivance, but I believe it meets a real need. I desire that God will close it down when it becomes a end in itself.
Don't bother getting the book on Jim Vane for Phil, it's really not that important. I thought it might interest him is all.
Must close now, write again.
"Hello" to Tara & Blake. In Christ
