Dear Mom,

Well I have received several letters from you lately so I better ~~now~~ write.

I am fine again. I haven't had a sign of trouble with malaria for some time. It may be that I had something else anyway.

Mom be sure you didn't receive my letter I wrote telling you about the check. I wrote it about Nov. 15th. The same day I sent one to the V.A. in Wichita and I have never heard from them either. Maybe I'll send them another; I suppose the check is lost for good too.

I asked you in one letter for a cookbook I saw out here with one of the girls. It is very good. The name is Better Homes & Gardens New Cookbook. Will you send me one right away. I just yesterday received one cookbook you sent me. It was Betty Crocker. It's good but it uses miles a lot. I haven't looked through it too much.

A boat just came in. The first one in a long time. I guess it was the first one to go around the Cape of Africa with our mail. I hope to get your package in a few days, maybe by Christmas. When a boat comes in we at first get sea or boat mail I mean like letters & magazines, then we get packages last as they are held up in Customs & duty & tax etc is declared on them.

I received a nice Christmas card from Aunt Alicia, Vic and Mrs. Hamilton. Those are the only ones to send me a Christmas card. It sure is disgusting.

IF ANYTHING IS ENCLOSED
THIS LETTER WILL BE SENT BY ORDINARY MAIL.

I've been having a bad congestion in my chest that I couldn't get rid of. I've had it at least a month now. I think it's going away now. I took 5 shots of streptomycin (penicillin & streptomycin) and it may have helped but it didn't do anything remarkable.

Aunt Laura tells me Chuck wants to go to T.C. to be ordained.

I've everyone letters. I'm going out on a long trip this Christmas and sell literature so I probably want to get many written. Last week 2 weeks ago, Co Philbrick and I sold 712 pieces of literature & gave out 1000 tracts. This week we hope to do more. Love Clyde Merry Christmas and Happy New Year
