Dear Mom & all,

I have been so busy since I came & so tired in between that I haven't written a letter to any one.

I first had to go to multan & pick up our refrigerator, stove & things we stored there from all our furniture. after I returned from multan I had to go to Karachi & get the truck.

I spent 10 days on that trip. They refused an import permit fa the truck fa two days & finally gave me one. I had to ask three different times fa it. I thought I was going to ship the truck back home.

The freight on the truck from the U.K. was $531. and that was with a 10% discount! The custom duty & sales tax was $1000. So you can see it cost money to bring it in.

It sure runs nice & is real handy to have. The petrol here was so bad that the motor made a terrible noise & I put aviation petrol in each tank full to bring the octane up to normal, & mix it 3 to one.

after I came back from Karachi I went back to Multan to our mission annual Conf. fa 4 days. I have just returned now & am busying to get things done around the house.
